

Houses built or inhabited by the French, location indicated on the map by letters: a Talon; b probably Boulogne; c Sibert, described in deed; d Schufeldt, afterward French; e Wheeler; f French, afterward A. P. Biles; g French, afterward J. Biles; h Homet; i French, afterward VanGorder; j French, afterward Miller; k French, afterward R. B. Kerriek; l Cottineau; m French, afterward Morey; n French, afterward Gordon; o F. X. Homet, now standing; p French, near C. Stevens' barn; q French, near Bacon's house; r House now standing built by Judge Laporte 1839, now Hagerman, visible from river, close to site of house of Talon; s House now occupied by George Laporte; t French still house; u Aubrey's smith shop; v location of Kerriek's famous camp, 1900; all original streets now used as roads are marked on map with arrows.

Cemeteries: Beginning with date of settlement up to present day, nine cemeteries have been established within original plot of Asylum, most of them afterwards abandoned. It is said more people are buried in this valley in comparison with population than is known in any such radius in this part of the country. These cemeteries are indicated on map in order of their establishment, by enclosed figures; the headstones are all gone from earliest ones. 1 old French; 2 abandoned about 1812; 3 abandoned about 1830; 4 Gordon family plot; 5 Laporte, first used 1836; 6 Homet, first used 1838; 7 Braun; 8 Gilbert; 9 In use 1903 at Methodist Church.